BEST FOR PRIVACY

JUMBY BAY, ANTIGUA

V.C. Bird International (ANU)

15 mins transfer from airport

V.C. Bird International welcomes jets of every size through its own private terminal. Jumby Bay is a car-free private island of 300 acres, with long empty beaches, villas set along the shoreline and complete seclusion from the moment you step off the boat.

BEST FOR ISLAND HOPPING

THE OCEAN CLUB, BAHAMAS

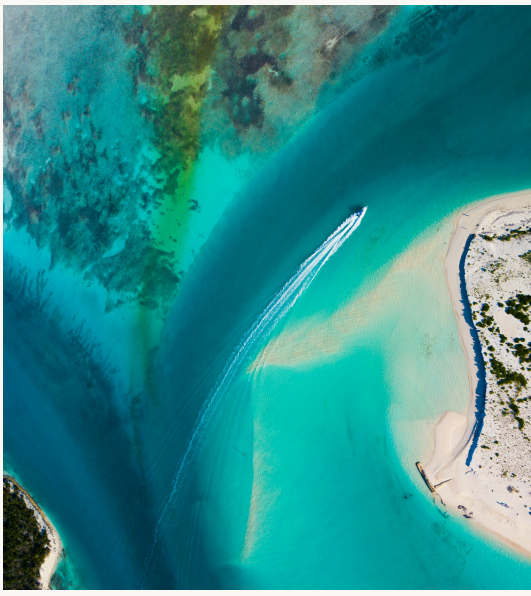

Lynden Pindling International (NAS)

40 mins drive from airport

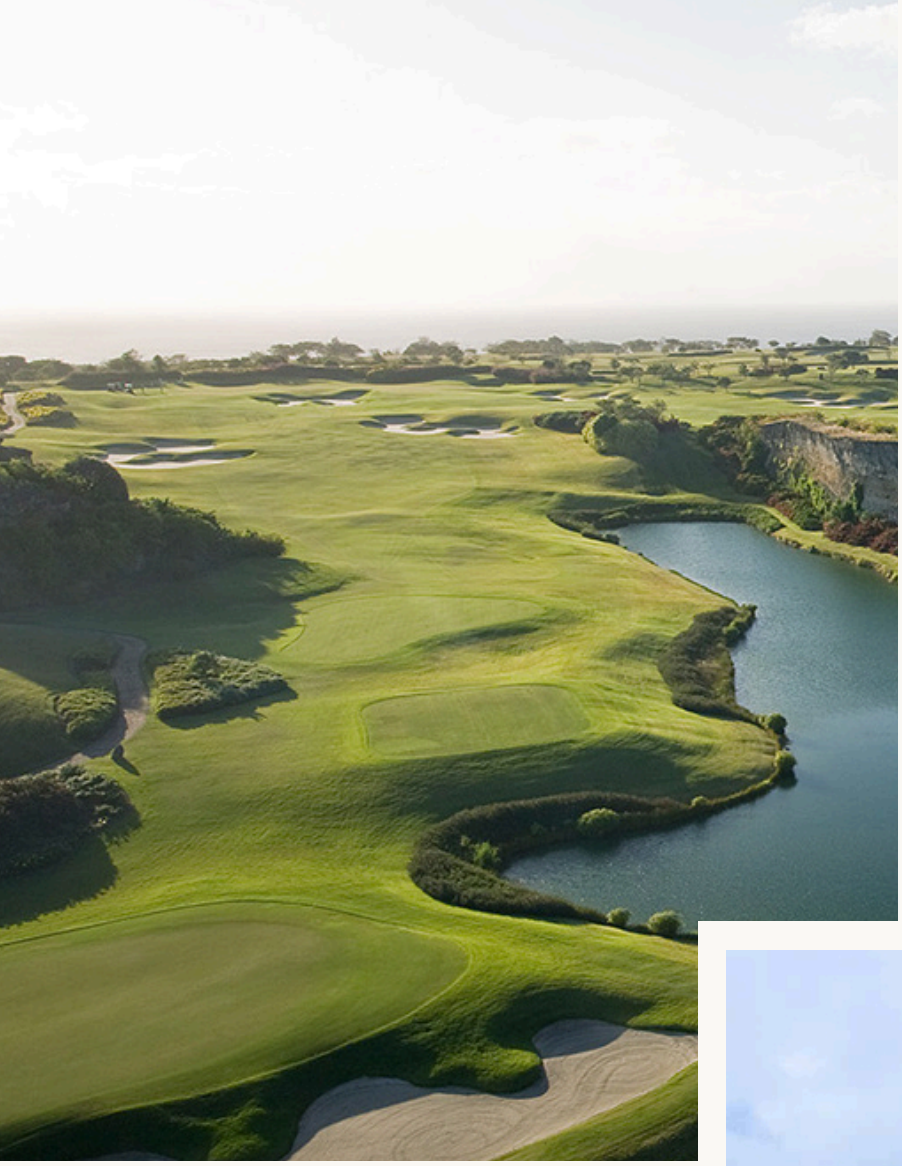

Seven hundred islands scattered across some of the clearest water on earth. Nassau is under three hours from New York, and its private terminal makes arrival effortless. From there, seaplanes and turboprops open up the Exumas and Harbour Island, while The Ocean Club on Paradise Island remains the Bahamas' most glamorous address - famous for its exclusivity, lush 35-acre Versailles-inspired gardens, and its appearance in the James Bond film Casino Royale.

BEST FOR GOLF

SANDY LANE, BARBADOS

Barbados pairs a lively social scene with some of the Caribbean's finest golf, led by Tom Fazio's celebrated Green Monkey. Grantley Adams has a dedicated private terminal, though aircraft parking over Christmas and New Year should be secured early. On the platinum west coast, Sandy Lane has been the island's grande dame since 1961.

Grantley Adams (BGI)

35 mins drive from airport

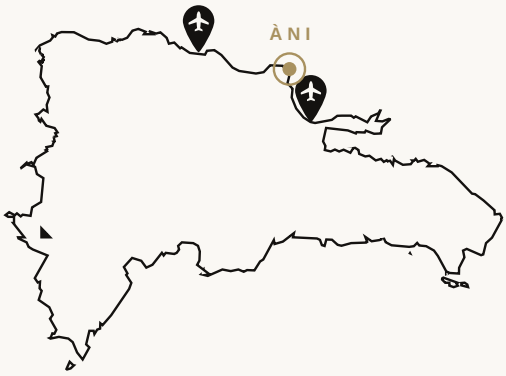

BEST FOR MULTIGENERATIONAL FAMILIES

ÀNI, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

Samaná El Catey (AZS) or Puerto Plata (POP)

65 mins drive from airport

The north coast is a world away from the resort strip of Punta Cana, with dramatic cliffs, quiet coves and rainforest running down to the sea. Samaná El Catey and Puerto Plata both accept private jets, with helicopter transfers on hand. ÀNI is booked by one group at a time, with 14 individual suites and over 30 staff to look after every generation.

BEST FOR WELLNESS

SIX SENSES LA SAGESSE, GRENADA

Maurice Bishop International (GND)

35 mins drive from airport

The Spice Island remains one of the Caribbean's least developed, with rainforest, waterfalls and nutmeg and cocoa estates across its interior. Maurice Bishop International takes transatlantic jets and handles private arrivals with ease. On the quiet south-east coast, Six Senses La Sagesse is a luxury eco-friendly resort offering plunge-pool suites and a spa inspired by the island's resources.

BEST FOR ENTERTAINMENT

CHEVAL BLANC, ST BARTHS

French in spirit and effortlessly chic, St Barths is home to some of the finest dining in the Caribbean, from long beach lunches to Gustavia's harbourside tables. Jets land on neighbouring St Maarten, followed by a 15-minute turboprop hop onto the island's famously short runway.

Gustaf III (SBH), via St Maarten

10 mins drive from airport

BEST FOR BEACHES

MANDARIN ORIENTAL, CANOUAN

Canouan (CIW)

5 mins drive from airport

Thirty-two islands and cays strung across turquoise water, from Mustique and Bequia to the powder-white sands of the Tobago Cays. Argyle and Canouan both accept private jets, so you can fly straight to the Grenadines. On Canouan, Mandarin Oriental sits on Godahl Beach, with five additional private beaches to choose from, all just minutes from the runway.
